

Please do not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections.

Before I had requested to be placed on the Telephone Privacy list, I received numerous calls solicitating funds for various purposes. these calls often came as I was preparing dinner, listening to news, getting ready for bed, or even as I was trying to get to sleep!